Primer for Americans

You live in the United States of America. You are an American.

Real Americans like their country. They are proud of it. They think it is a good place to live. And they want to keep it good—to keep it getting better and better all the time.

But in many countries of the world, people are unable to live the way we do. They live in Communist countries, or in Fascist countries. This means that they live more like slaves than like free men and women. They have no chance to choose their leaders.

That's just the opposite of the way we like to live. It's why Americans don't like either Communism or Fascism. So we want to keep both of them out of America.

And the best way to keep them out is to understand all we can about our free Democratic country so that we can protect our freedoms.

Why is America the way it is? What makes it a good place to live? The answer is simply this:

Throughout our history most Americans have believed that every person has certain rights and duties and responsibilities.

Americans have believed that there are certain things that people should do, and other things they should not do.

They have also believed in certain things that people are, and are not.

These things that people believe are called principles. This book is an attempt to state the Principles of America in simple, primer fashion so that you can understand them, learn them, and remember them.

This is important. It was because earlier Americans believed in these principles and guided their lives by them, that America has grown to be the good place it is.

If all of us learn and remember these principles—if we also guide our lives by them—then we can help to keep America growing better, and better, and better.

And if we follow these Principles of America, we can help make the world a better place to live in, too.

The Principles of America are these . .

1. Each Person is of Importance and Value
as an Individual.

This is the cornerstone . . . the foundation of all our other beliefs in a person's right to live his own life, to speak for himself, to choose and change his leaders.

From it comes our hatred of those "isms" under which the individual has no value or importance as a person, but is only one of many unimportant people who have to live the way their leaders tell them to.

Coming directly from that first principle are two other principles that are also part of the foundation of Americanism.

2. We Believe that All Men should Enjoy
Personal Freedom.

3. We Believe that All Men are Created Equal.

It is worth noting that the Declaration of Independence expressed the belief that "all men are created equal." It did not state or imply a belief that men develop equally or have equal ability, or that they should ever be forced to an exact equality of thought, speech or material possessions.

That would be equality without freedom. Americans have always believed the two should go together.

From the days of the Declaration of Independence and the writing of the Constitution, Americans have known that even though Life, Liberty, and other unalienable rights are granted to man by his Creator, they require some protection by man, himself.

So, in our Constitution, and in other laws of our land, there are set down principles to protect the rights and freedoms and equality of individuals. And these principles play an important part in keeping America a good place in which to live.

4. The Right to Freedom of Speech.

This includes freedom of the press, of radio, of motion pictures, of every means by which man may express his thoughts on any subject.

5. The Right to Freedom of Assembly.

As we believe in the right of individual action, so we believe that individuals should be free to act together for the benefit of all. This IS Democracy.

6. The Right to Freedom of Worship.

Not only is the individual free to worship as he will, but religions themselves are free and equal . . . regardless of their size or their beliefs.

7. The Right to Security of Person and Property.

Not just one, but three Amendments to the Constitution (4th, 5th and 14th) protect against illegal search and seizure, or loss of life, liberty, or property, without "due process of law."

8. The Right to Equal Protection before the Law.

As individuals are equally important, so laws must apply equally to all, without special privileges for any particular individuals or groups.

9. The Right to Freedom from Slavery.

This includes "the right to quit," for no individual may be forced to work for another.

10. The Right to Petition the Government.

The legally guaranteed right of the individual to "petition the government for redress of grievances" is evidence of the American belief that government is the servant, not the master, of the people.

11. The Right to Vote for people of your choice.

This is the individual's most potent weapon in the protection of his rights and freedoms . . . a weapon that to be effective must be constantly and wisely used.

The Principles of America hold that every man has . . .

12. The Right to a Good Education.
13. The Right to Live where he pleases.
14. The Right to Work where he wants to.
15. The Right to Join and Belong to an Organization.
16. The Right to Own Property.
17. The Right to Start his Own Business.
18. The Right to Manage his Own Affairs.
19. The Right to Make a Profit or to Fail, depending on his Own Ability.

There are other, similar rights of individual action which are Principles of America, but all of these individual rights may be combined in these two broad principles . . .

20. Every Man is entitled to Freedom and Equality of Opportunity.
21. Every Man may Earn his Living When, Where, and How he wants to.

There are also Limiting Principles...

Principles of individual freedom sometimes clash with those of individual equality. Therefore our rights as individuals must be limited, and those limitations are themselves principles.

22. The Rights of any Individual shall not Interfere with the Equal Rights of other Individuals.

Your right to swing your arms stops where the other fellow's nose starts.

23. The Rights of any Individual shall not Interfere with the Welfare of the People as a Whole.

Freedom of speech does not give the individual the right to shout "fire" in a crowded theatre.

24. Every Individual owes Obedience to the Laws under which he Lives.

The individual has the right to talk against a law, to work and vote to change that law, but NOT to disobey that law.

Principles that are Patterns of Behavior...

Many of our principles of individual freedom and equality are guaranteed to us by law.

But we have other beliefs, other general rules of action and conduct that have grown to the status of principles. They have stood the test of time. They have worked. They have become a basic part of the way we live and of the way we look at things.

These principles, too, are foundations of Americanism. They are as true, if not more true, today than they were in 1850 or in 1750.

If America stays free, they will still hold true in 2050.

25. Every Man shall be Judged by his Own Record.

A man's family background, his race or his religion, is not as important as what that man himself can do, for Americans believe a man must stand on his own feet.

26. Every Man is Free to Achieve as much as he can.

We believe that where any boy may become President, where any man may achieve greatness, there is the greatest incentive for every man to do his best.

27. To Achieve anything, a Man should be Willing to Work.

Americans have always known that "you don't get something for nothing," that to get anything takes a willingness to work and to work hard.

28. Achievement also Depends upon the Ability to do a Good Job.

Add to "willingness to work" the ability to produce results and the combination is the basis for most individual achievement in our country.

29. Every Man has the Right to a Fair Share of the Results of his Work and his Ability.

Because of this belief, America has not only produced more goods, but they have been more fairly and more widely shared by more people than in any other country.

30. Security is the Ability of a Man to Provide for himself.

The only true security for any individual is the opportunity, the ability, and the determination to work and plan and save for his own present and future. Self-reliance is vital to individual independence and personal freedom. No man can be "proud and free" who depends on others for his security.

31. When an Individual cannot Provide his own Security, the Responsibility should be Assumed by Others.

We believe that no one should starve, or be without adequate clothing and shelter, so those who have more than their basic needs share the responsibility of providing the essentials of security for those who need help.

32. Every Individual must Deal Fairly with other Individuals.

Honesty, fairness, and personal integrity are virtues that help free and independent individuals get along with each other without losing their independence.

33. Fair and Free Competition is a Good Thing.

Americans have always believed that competition among individuals or groups encourages greater effort which in turn brings greater benefits to all.

34. Cooperation among Individuals is Vitally Important.

GENERAL EISENHOWER has said: "The freedom to compete vigorously accompanied by a readiness to cooperate wholeheartedly for the performance of community and national functions, together make our system the most productive on earth."

Principles of Individual Responsibility...

Freedom for individuals carries with it an equal responsibility to use that freedom wisely. Therefore, if we wish to remain free, we must faithfully fulfill our responsibilities as free men.

35. The Individual is Responsible for himself and his Family.

He must protect them and provide for their present and future well-being.

36. The Individual has Responsibilities to the Groups of which he is a Part.

He must give of his best to his community, his church, his employer, his union, and to every group in which individuals cooperate for their mutual benefit.

37. The Individual has Responsibilities to his Country.

He must be an active citizen, interesting himself in local, state, and national government, voting wisely, thinking and speaking and acting to preserve and strengthen freedom, equality and opportunity for every individual.

38. The Individual has Responsibilities to the World.

Man's horizons have expanded. What happens in the world affects him, and his actions can affect the world. Today, therefore, each man has a responsibility to act—and to encourage his country to act—so that freedom and cooperation will be encouraged among the people and the nations of the world.

For America's Future

Most of us are still confident of ourselves and of our country. We do not claim perfection. But we have faith in our ability to move forward, to improve, to grow, to provide more and more individuals with more and more of everything they want and need in life . . .

If we, the people of the United States, want to have more material benefits, we must believe in and follow these two principles:

39. The only way we can Have More is to Produce More; and

40. As we Produce More, we must make it possible for More and More People to Enjoy that which we Produce.

If we, the people of the United States, want to have a better life, spiritually as well as materially . . .

41. We must stand firmly for our Beliefs, our Rights, our Principles.

WALT WHITMAN, writing nearly 100 years ago, put it this way:

“There is no week, nor day, nor hour when tyranny may not enter upon this country if the people lose their supreme confidence in themselves . . .”

There are those who would chip away our confidence so that their special brand of tyranny might creep into America. They must not succeed. So, let us ask of every plan, or act, or idea . . .

Is it With or Against the Principles of America?

Vic Riesel recently broke the story in the New Leader that Secretary Acheson was secretly plotting what may be one of the most despicable betrayals of all history. Riesel reports that Acheson has moved in on the Korean negotiations to lift the prisoner exchange talks to top secret level. It is of course obvious even to a layman that there cannot possibly be any top secret, i.e., involving national security or interest, classification of anything as simple as a prisoner exchange program. This was done to exclude the American press which was smart enough to suspect something unusual was being cooked up behind the "top secret" screen.

The Chinese Reds have demanded that all POWs be returned to them including those who are violently anti-communist. The fate of these anti-communists can easily be imagined. The Katyn forest massacre of 11,000 Polish officers, by the Russians, would be overshadowed by an even greater mass butchery in the Far East. Our military want to return only those prisoners who ask to be repatriated or who admit they are communists. Acheson, it is charged, wants to accede to the Chinese Reds and return all POWs except those who "violently object." Violent objection being defined as those who commit or threaten to commit suicide.

About one-third of these POWs came to our lines with our psychological warfare "surrender passes." To hand these men back to Chinese executioners would not only blacken American military men but would serve as a warning to all Asia that anyone foolish enough to side with Uncle Sam may sooner or later find himself handed over to the communists anyway in some "top secret" deal. In other words Yugoslavia, Poland, and the anti-Soviet Russians we forcibly handed over to the N.K.V.D. in Germany after the last war all over again.

It would also mean that satellite troops fighting under the red flag against Americans anywhere would be forced to fight to the death because to surrender to Americans would ultimately mean death anyway when they were handed back to the communists in any "ceasefire" negotiations. That would mean more hundreds of thousands of American casualties. Communist propagandists all over the world lay heavy emphasis on the claim that while Stalin rewards and protects his friends and ruthlessly exterminates his enemies, Uncle Sam betrays and surrenders his friends and allies and rewards his enemies. Acheson's latest secret move would merely tend to confirm this allegation. The friend and protector of Alger Hiss cunningly knows that he can rely on the anxiety of American families whose boys are prisoners of the Chinese Reds to support any prisoner exchange program which will bring back American boys. Even if it means the torture and death of tens of thousands of anti-communist Chinese and North Koreans whom we treacherously hand back to Stalin and Mao Tze Tung. (While we are on the subject of Acheson, don't miss a splendid, documented article on the Dean of Appeasement in April's American Mercury, by Felix Wittmer.)

Congress has just passed H.R. 364, a resolution by Representative Cox of Georgia. It empowers Congress to set up a new committee to investigate educational and philanthropic foundations to determine whether any of them have used their tax-exempt resources to foster or advance un-American and subversive activities. This is a most important project, designed to unearth secret sources of apparently inexhaustible financial support for the communist conspiracy in America. It is to be hoped that Congress will give the new committee adequate funds to permit high level staff work and to do a thorough job. There is ample evidence that some of the wealthiest and most respected foundations endowed with millions of dollars by conservative American financiers and businessmen have been either very careless or tolerant in dispensing largess to subsidiary foundations and/or organizations which in turn financed dubious projects dear to the hearts and interests of the Stalinists.

And, while Congress is looking into some of these foundations it might also very profitably look into the history and activities of the AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION. Founded in 1914 to oppose American preparedness and "militarism", the ACLU devoted most of its energies in W.W. I to aiding slackers and draft dodgers. It claims to have been founded in 1920 in order to divest itself of this unpleasant history, but this was merely a change in name. A carefully documented history of this outfit would be devastating, an eye-opening for certain "liberals" in the Justice Department who play footsie with it.

HARRY BRIDGES still loose. The West Coast commissar for shipping, whose record needs no introduction to Legionnaires, was convicted and sentenced just two years ago this month. Australian born Harry is still boss of the port of San Francisco with life and death powers over West Coast shipping including Alaska and Hawaii. Don't ask us to explain the legal niceties as to why BRIDGES has not been deported or sent to prison two years after conviction of perjury. Ask J. Howard McGrath, former U. S. Attorney General, who now has plenty of time on his hands and whose former department presumably has the answers. And, in case you have forgotten, JUDY COPLON is also still out on appeal or something since the Supreme Court ruled in effect that while the evidence of her guilt was convincing the F.B.I. had erred in the manner of arresting her and that therefore she was entitled to a new trial.

Speaking of BRIDGES, see Victor Riesel's "Ten Men Who Could Paralyze American Industry For Thirty Days" in April's Cosmopolitan. The A.F.L. Seafarers Union warns that American ports and docks are wide open to Soviet sabotage using foreign seamen or trained saboteurs posing as seamen. Aliens applying for visitor's visas or entry permits must be screened by U.S. consular offices under the McCarran Act. THIS LAW, HOWEVER, DOES NOT APPLY TO FOREIGN SEAMEN. Some 400,000 Americans, longshoremen, seamen, and others having access to port facilities have been checked and cleared by the U.S. Coast Guard, which is charged with Maritime security. But foreign seamen sail in and out of all American harbors and traverse docks in areas closed to Americans without let or hindrance. What a perfect set-up for communist couriers, spies in transit, saboteurs looking for vulnerable spots, and other Stalinist agents. The Seafarers' Log points out that seven missing high-ranking communists who skipped bail after conviction, or whom the F.B.I. failed to find after indictment, very probably slipped out of the country on some foreign registry ship.

St. Louis Legionnaires picketed the "Death of a Salesman" the first night that this picture played in that city. Fifteen uniformed Legionnaires in line. Any other Legion units which "grade-labelled" some of Hollywood's more questionable products? DORE SCHARY has filed a two-million-dollar suit against the Wage Earners of America, intimating he will file similar suits against any other individuals or organizations which seek to link his name with communist fronts or causes. Fine. House Un-American Activities Committee should now summon Mr. Schary and ask him for a list of names of known and established anti-communists he has ever employed or given work to. Our information, which may be erroneous, is that the list will be awfully slender. Then, that list should be matched against all the identified communists, fellow travellers, pinkos, and Fifth Amendment boys Schary has hired in the past, leaving American movie-goers to draw their own conclusions as to MR. DORE SCHARY.

You saw it in the Summary of Trends and Developments first, probably years ago. Gen. Lawton Collins recently declared that a hard-hitting propaganda war against Russia would materially reduce the chances of W.W. III. Summary hammered this theme on numerous occasions three years ago. Rev. Leopold Braun, believed to be the only Catholic priest permitted to function in Russia in recent years, spent eleven years in Moscow. In recent interview he criticized American propaganda efforts via Voice of America as futile and dangerous because we broadcast to slave populations tantalizing pictures of life and materialistic advantages in the U. S. Father Braun said this merely infuriates and discourages Russians who basically like and trust us and who hate Stalin and the communist state apparatus of terror and slavery. They expect American official agencies to attack and expose every aspect of Soviet tyranny. Instead, they see pictures of Acheson and Mrs. Roosevelt wining and dining and smirking at Vishinsky, Malik, and other Soviet commissars and treating the Soviet criminals as a legitimate government. They are beginning to draw unfortunate inferences. Summary said same thing for years.

IMPORTANT NOTICES. "Realities of World Power" by Col. John Kieffer (McKay, New York, $4.00) is one of the most important books published during the cold war. Kieffer, a geopolitician, describes the United States as "Target No. One" for Soviet aggression bent on world domination. Kieffer's simply explained differences between the democratic state and the geopolitical state are of supreme importance to every literate American concerned with the security of this country. "Realities of World Power" is not high-brow or abstract musings but a hard-hitting and serious work that every Legionnaire should read. Highly recommended -- should be in every college and high school library.

The House Committee on Un-American Activities Annual Report for 1951 is a most important publication. Don't miss it. Has several Legion convention resolutions or mandates on communism embodied in it. Also a stinging indictment of Hollywood dilly-dallying with commies. Get it through your Congressman. Supply very limited.

LARRY ADLER is reported back in the U.S. looking for work. William Morris of New York is reputed to be his agency. Any Legionnaires learning of any ADLER performances or scheduled appearances anywhere in the U.S. are asked to convey facts immediately to the National Americanism Commission.

M.G.M. has just filmed the story of Hans Christian Anderson in technicolor. And who do you suppose played the part of that most delightful creator of childrens' fairy tales of all times--DANNY KAYE! Kaye's draft record and participation in the 1947 caravan from Hollywood to smear and vilify the House Un-American Activities Committee will be briefly summarized in the next issue of the Firing Line. Another character that should be called by the McCarran Committee.

SEYMOUR PECK, motion picture critic for the N.Y. Compass since that paper's inception, has moved to the N.Y. Times staff. (Editor and Publisher, page 40, March 1st, 1952) Nuff sed!

Apologies to Victor Riesel, the Tablet, and all other anti-communist columnists and papers inadvertently omitted from a Firing Line list of publications which consistently expose and combat communism.

The University of San Francisco received a special Legion commendation from the Department of California for being one of America's first schools to set up compulsory study courses on world communism. At special campus ceremonies, Department Commander Home of California presented a framed Legion commendation to President William J. Dunne, S.J. expressing the American Legion's "sincere admiration and deep appreciation of its pioneer work in this field."

Legionnaires interested in the legal aspects of the ill-fated Yalta Conference will find an important contribution to this question on page 2499 of the March 18th Congressional Record. The C.R., by the way, is well worth subscribing to for its daily budget of items of information on current subversive activities and Congressional disclosures.

A suggestion to Auxiliary members and women readers of the Firing Line. All material is uncopyrighted. Any or all of it may be reproduced or quoted provided due credit as to source is given. Your telephone and club meetings can be put to good use in our Legion's war on subversion simply by passing along to others, with suitable suggestions as to possible further action, the information published twice a month in this newsletter. Tip your friends off to bad movies, questionable lecturers, radio and TV shows employing individuals of doubtful loyalty, plays employing pinkos, dishonest and pro-Soviet books, etc. REMEMBER -- THE WAR AGAINST SOVIET SUBVERSION ABROAD CANNOT BE WON IF WE LOSE THE WAR AGAINST STALIN'S LITTLE HELPERS RIGHT HERE IN THE UNITED STATES. Edmund Burke once truly said, "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing."

A $3.00 subscription to the Firing Line paid with a refund check from Time Magazine. Reason for cancellation -- indignation of an old Time subscriber over the "continuous and malicious sniping at Senator McCarthy and other anti-communists." Several other Firing Line subscribers write in that they have cancelled their Life subscriptions because of the suspicion that the continuous stream of plugs for JUDY HOLLIDAY, MARSHA HUNT, JOSE FERRER, and others "are no accident" as the commies say.

If you want Senator Tenney's answer to the phony Barrett Book, "The Tenney Committee" send a dollar or $5.00 for six copies, to Standard Publications, Box 427, Tujunga, California. Well worth the buck. Put it in college libraries and any other place where pinkoes may congregate. It might open some eyes.
